

DRUM TALES: THE LION KING OF AFRICA

Many thanks to the Jefferson Consolidated PTA for sponsoring this magnificent assembly for the Briggs community. Students learned about animals within the safari and other places throughout Africa.

WHITE ROCK CELEBRATES WELLNESS WEEK

In recognition of Wellness Week, School Nurse Mrs. Goldberg coordinated various spirit days and activities such as the importance of getting extra sleep, eating fruits and vegetables, drinking more water, and increased exercise to show their personal commitment to living a healthy lifestyle.

TREPS$ MARKETPLACE

Great job 5th-grade enTREPpreneur$ on a successful Marketplace! Students applied what they learned through their experiences of REAL business ownership and with the support of their families.

Mayor Proclaims SEL Day at Stanlick

Thank you to Ms. Santini for organizing successful Social Emotional Learning (SEL) activities for Stanlick students and staff. Great job by Mrs. Kirschner, Ms. Nimmo, and Mrs. Sell for inviting Mayor Wilsusen to issue a SEL Day proclamation.

STANLICK & WHITE ROCK 5TH GRADE BAND & CHORUS CONCERT

Fifth-grade band and chorus students from Arthur Stanlick and White Rock Schools performed a combined concert under the direction of music teachers Ms. Jessica Kirschner, Mrs. Emily Thomsen, and Mr. Robert Tiedemann at JTHS. The Junior Falcons artists participated in multiple icebreaker activities before they begin sixth-grade all together in September.

STANLICK & WHITE ROCK: BIG, BAD WOLF TRIALS

Maybe not the trials of the century, but surely at the Stanlick and White Rock Schools. A guest Judge, charged teachers, and student-appointed attorneys and jury members made this annual event memorable for all. Thank you, Mrs. Platz!

JTHS HONOR FORMER ALUMNUS: RAISING MONEY & AWARENESS

In memory of former JTHS graduate Nick Scalfini, who recently passed away from leukemia, the National Honor Society (NHS) hosted a student and staff volleyball fundraising game to benefit further leukemia research.

Also, Haley Conrad and Lynnae Giordano were recognized at the Leukemia and Lymphoma Society Grand Finale as Student Visionaries of the Year. The young ladies led a team of NHS members to raise $31,788.74 for research. Dylan Kircher was recognized for individually raising over $5,000. All of the money was donated in memory of former JTHS graduate Nicholas Scalfani.
