SUMMER

READING

GRADES 4 AND 5

4TH AND 5TH GRADE SUMMER READING: ALL YOU NEED TO KNOW

THE READERS

All 4th and 5th
Grade students, their friends and
their families!

THE PLAN

Seeing summer
as an important
time for students
to keep reading!

THE PURPOSE

Prevent the dreaded
“summer slide”.

Build reading stamina
and enjoyment.

Strengthen skills.

Boost confidence.

SUMMER READING MADE EASY!

FROM SCHOOL:

Use the provided book lists and activities to get on track and stay there all summer!

AT HOME:

Find a quiet, comfy spot.

Read for 15–20 minutes a day.

Read alone, with someone or listen to an audio book.

MAKING IT FUN:

Pair up with a friend and read the same book!

Visit the library a few times.

Talk about your book with a family member.

SUGGESTED ASSIGNMENT

After you are done reading the book, identify two quotations in the book.

Print and use this sheet to complete the assignment below for each quote:

- Copy the quote exactly as it appears in your book– don't forget to use quotation marks!
- Write the page number(s) where the quote appears.
- Explain by answering the following questions:
 - Why did you choose this quote?
 - What does it mean?
 - Why do you think it is important to the book?

Please complete and hand in the assignment to your teacher by Monday, September 8th, 2025.

Summer reading and assignments are optional and will not be graded.

An illustration featuring a purple background. In the center, an open notebook with cream-colored pages and a red cover is shown. The pages have faint, curved lines. To the right of the notebook is a green book with a white spine. To the left, a pink book is partially visible. On the far right, a blue book is partially visible. The text "HAPPY READING!" is written in a bold, black, sans-serif font across the middle of the image, overlapping the notebook and the green book.

HAPPY READING!
